

Teaching Opportunity in China

Lester B Pearson School Board is recruiting English teachers on behalf of one of its partners in Hangzhou, China. Hangzhou is a city located south west of China. It has a population of 23 million people. The Hangzhou Education Group is made up of five schools (elementary and secondary) in the city.

They are looking for 3 dedicated teachers to teach grade five and grade seven students English as a second language through a S T E A M approach.

Interested candidates must have a BREVET and preferably some experience or knowledge of a STEAM.

- The contract is for eight months. Specifically from March to June and from September to December. The gross salary is C$50,000 or approximately 250,000 RMB (note that the average salary of a teacher in China is approximately 100,000 RMB).
- This includes a free apartment and 2 meals are included on school days. The workload will respect 1230 minutes a week without additional duties.
- Chosen candidates will have 2 free round trips made available.

The school board is happy to offer LBPSB interested teachers this once a lifetime opportunity. The competition is also open to teachers outside of the school board.

Interested applicants must send their application via email to Line Legault-Fisher at the international Department by December 9th, 2016.
