

Montreal Alouette's Anwar Stewart to Speak in Honour of Adult Learners' Week
Thurs. April 2, 2009

Dorval, Qc., April 2 – The Alouette's Anwar Stewart will be the Lester B. Pearson School Board's Guest of Honour when he speaks today at the Board's official launch of Adult Learners' Week 2009.

There will also be an opportunity to hear the incredible and inspirational stories of adult learners and how their lives have changed as a result of Adult Education. There will also be a presentation for adults who have demonstrated a curiosity and need for learning. They will be recognized by Lester B. Pearson School Board, QAAL and Literacy Unlimited. The event also aims to highlight the commitment of individuals and organizations that support adult learners.

Quebec's Adult Learners' Week is an event taking place in many public places throughout the province to celebrate all adults who are learning in the workplace, at school and in everyday life. These events are also meant to encourage others to follow in these adults' footsteps.

The event is taking place today from 2:00 PM to 3:00 PM at the Lester B. Pearson School Board, 1925 Brookdale Avenue, Dorval in the Board Room.
