Dear school staff:

Once again, we've had quite an eventful year! Between the health measures, the class closures, the inevitable delays to catch up on as well as the everyday concerns, the challenges kept on coming and pushed us to the limit once more.

There are thousands of you working daily for the good of our students and providing them with the tools they need to become, in time, active and engaged citizens, agents of change and forces contributing to the prosperity of our communities.

Of course, none of this would be possible without your professionalism and impressive capacity to adapt, for which we are extremely grateful. The tide turns, needs change and yet you remain formidable pillars that we can count on at any moment. Words fail to fully express the gratitude we feel for your work and commitment.

Please take this holiday season to relax and to spend time with your friends and family. The new year will be full of new challenges to be faced.

Until next year!

Happy Holidays!
